

Catholic Adventure Week Camp
July 17-23, 2011 at Swift Base of the S-f Scout Ranch

Catholic Adventure Week is designed as a week of summer camp for youth members registered as Boy Scouts. Morning activities include water skiing, rock climbing, rappelling, tubing and biking. Afternoon activities include merit badge work and religious awards assistance.

There will be morning and evening prayer services, Mass and Reconciliation, Vesper service on a pontoon boat, and a visit to Huck's Cove. The cost of the week-long program is $220 (may be subject to change). The fee includes seventeen meals, lodging, and program materials. All meals will be served in the dining hall. Scouts wishing to do the Voyageur program (typically 1st year campers) or Shotgun Merit Badge there is a $10 fee paid at camp. Please submit this form and reservation fee for each individual Scout interested. Submit a troop form as well if adults from Troop will attending and providing leadership. Program packet materials will be sent out in March.
